PASS NEW DECREE ON REST HOMES

The new decree on rest homes, effective 14 February, orders the following:

1. State production and transport enterprises, main councils, and central administrations of the Association of Yugoslav Unions which had rest homes on the day when the decree on measures for economizing in consumers' goods took effect are herewith authorized to utilize again these homes.

All rest homes which were taken over, by the hotel network, from state production and transport enterprises, main councils, and central administrations of the Association of Yugoslav Unions as a result of the directive entitled "Reassignment of Vacation Resorts and Other Facilities Belonging to Various Establishments, Agencies, Enterprises, and Associated Organizations," are to be returned to their original users in the same condition as they were taken over, not later than 15 days after 14 February.

Rest homes which were under the administration of the federal Ministry of Railroads are to be returned to the central administration of the Union of Railroad Workers and Employees.

Farms belonging to respective rest homes, together with their personnel, are also to be returned.

2. Subject to their approval, users mentioned above may be assigned other rest homes than the original ones.

3. The republic committees for tourism and hotels are charged with the implementation of the return of rest homes to their former users.
